

The Proof is in the Eating

Many a loaf of bread has been spoiled by the four not being just right.

Opportune Flour

It is manufactured from wheat grown in your own district, and ground in your own mill. Why say more? Buy from us and you support home industry.

Local and District

Miss Ellen Reed was a visitor here from Morris over the weekend.

W. J. Bryne was kicked by a horse one day last week, fracturing a bone in his right wrist.

The new United Church at Mon-ton is nearing completion and will soon be ready for service.

Mr. Duane Clark, and his son, Douglas, of Medicine Hat, visited at Delia, Mr. C. S. Salafsky over the week-end.

Wm. Spruce, of Victoria, Manitoba, is visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
Spruce.

Miss Marjorie Marks, of Hanna, was visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bube, and daughter Peter, of Banff, Alberta, motored through here on a visit last Sunday.

Mr. J. Klesiek returned home on Saturday after spending a week visiting with Mrs. Lewis, while motoring over the week-end.

A couple of anglers were seen on W. J. Bryne's farm last week. After being chased by his dog, they were reported as being seen at various points in the area, but no fish were taken, in the Hand Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Courtright, of Stettin, and a former manager of the Crown Lumber Yard here, visited with Mrs. A. A. Richardson and Miss McKelvey Sunday.

Rev. E. S. Parker, a former Baptist minister, who has been working under the United Church at Sun-brook, was received into the ministry of the United Church at the recent conference.

As advertised last week, there will be a demonstration by Dominion Wood Killer Co. at Geo. Boler's farm this afternoon at 1:30, and McKen's farm, Craigwyl, at 4:30 p.m.

Mr. J. O. Condon, student minister, arrived at Pollockville, was a guest at the home Sunday of last week.
On Wednesday he presented a talk to his church and college class.
Mr. McCabe, of Wynon, Minister.

Mr. C. H. Sweeney, who sold his farm north of town about a year ago, and is now located at Menack, Alberta, arrived in Delia Friday morning, by way of a visit to his children and wife, Mrs. and Miss Trump.

Last week we reported in this column that W. C. King shipped a cavalry of horses from Craighill.
This was a mistake, as the shipment was made by the owner of the cavalry, having received no order from the shipper of this cavalry of horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Engle, of Calgary, have taken up their residence in Banff, having taken a place in the town of Banff, and
